

Website Privacy Notice

Eat Club complies with its obligations under GDPR by not collecting data which is not required; by storing data securely and destroying it when no longer required; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse and unauthorised access and by ensuring appropriate permissions are in place to protect personal identification information.

How we process your personal identification information

We may collect personal identification information from visitors to our website in a variety of ways. These include when visitors respond to a survey, complete a form, etc. when visitors may be asked for their name and email address. Visitors may, however, visit our website anonymously, and can refuse to supply personal identification information.

How we process your non-personal identification information

We may collect non-personal identification information about visitors when they interact with our site. This may include the browser name, type of computer and technical information about a visitor’s means of connection with our site, such as the operating system and internet service providers utilised.

Eat Club uses Google Analytics, a service which tracks and reports traffic to our website. Cookies are collected and stored about how visitors use our site which helps us to improve our webpages. This information is anonymised.

How we use collected information

We may collect visitors’ personal identification information to enhance our publicity and to run events and activities. Users can unsubscribe to receiving newsletters etc. at any point via the unsubscribe link or by contacting us via the website.

We may collect non- personal identification information to improve our customer service and improve the engagement of visitors with our webpages.

How we store your data

We ensure we have appropriate data collection, storage and processing practices and security measures to protect against access, alteration, disclosure or destruction of your personal information.

How we share your personal information

We do not sell or trade User’s personal identification information to other organisations. We may use third party service providers to enable us to circulate our newsletters or publicity. We will only share your data with these organisations for the purposes you have given us in your permission.

Your rights

Users can unsubscribe to receiving newsletters etc. at any point via the unsubscribe link or by contacting us via the website.

If we wish to use your personal information for a new purpose, not covered by this existing notice, we will publish an updated notice on our website setting out the changes. By using our site, you are signifying your acceptance of our policy. If you do not agree to this, please do not use our website.

Please contact hello@eat-club.org if you have any queries and requests regarding your personal data.

Reviewed by: Ruth Soroko Position: Eat Club Chief Executive

Updated date: 9th April 2020 Next review date: April 2021

